FOUR GENERATIONS WERE AT THE REUNION

Of the Brooks and King Families Which Spent the Day at Killbuck Park.

There were four generations of the Brooks family represented at the reunion of the King and Brooks families of Connelville, Scotland, Northville and Mill Run which was held at Killbuck Park on the Indian Creek Valley railroad yesterday. The junior half of the four generation group was from Connelville, while the senior and was from Mill Run. The four generations that were in the group were made up of Captain G. W. Brooks and his son, Charles K. Brooks both of Mill Run, the latter's son, C. W. Brooks, Receiver for the West Penn Railways Company at Connelville, and his little son, C. W. Brooks, Jr.

The reunion was the first one to be held by these families, and while no permanent organization was formed it was agreed that there would be another reunion held next year, the event being such a pleasant one. There were 74 set down to a bountiful dinner, and a half dozen others arrived after dinner. All were there for the luncheon which small groups held picnic fashion later in the day. Rev. J. L. Leitch, pastor of the Mt. Weber and Oronovalley United Brethren Churches, delivered the invocation at the dinner, and Rev. John R. King of Scotland, who has charge of the church's missions in Africa, and with his wife, is at home on a vacation, gave a short address. The master of ceremonies was Captain G. W. Brooks, and he made everyone feel at home. Several photographs were taken during the day, and will be preserved as mementoes of the gathering of the families.

The afternoon was spent in rowing in the new boats upon the pretty lakes, and in gathering laurel, some very beautiful clusters being secured. There was a large representation from Scotland, and from Connelville those in attendance were Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Krepps, and daughter, and Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Davis, and Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Brooks and son.

PASSENGER SAVES CONDUCTOR WHO FORGOT

That the Yough Bridge Was Being Repaired and Stepped Down Upon the Running Board.

Conductor Clarence Reardon of the West Penn had a narrow escape from a midnight bath in the Youghiogheny river Tuesday night while his car was crossing the bridge at 11:30. Reardon forgot about the repairs to the structure and stepped down on the running board.

As the car passed one of the posts, the obstruction struck Reardon on the legs and almost precipitated him into the watery depths below. Just as he was about to fall, a colored passenger grasped him around the waist and saved him.

As it was, Reardon's hat fell off and tumbled through the open space beneath the rails, never to be seen again. The crossing is dangerous and it is necessary for conductors to be on their guard at all times crossing the bridge. It is unsafe for them to stand on the running board.

ITALIAN KILLED ON REPAIR TRACK

Man Who Died Before Reaching Hospital Was Vincenzo Diminta.

The body of Vincenzo Diminta was removed yesterday afternoon from the Cottage State Hospital to J. E. Shime's undertaking rooms and prepared for burial. In the absence of Coroner H. J. Bell of Dawson Dr. T. B. Echarat, Deputy Coroner, appointed the following jury to hold an inquest into the death of Diminta. F. R. Fox, A. O. Bickler, John Detenoble, William Dull, H. A. Glosky and Wilhelm Hetsel. The inquest will be held on the return of Coroner Bell from Cincinnati where he is attending the annual convention of the Baltimore & Ohio Railroad Surgeons.

Diminta was run down by a B. & O. train on the repair track yesterday morning, sustaining a fractured skull. He is aged 20 years and has an uncle residing in the West Side.

EXHIBITION ORDINARY BUT CROWD IMMENSE

Connellsville Was Well Represented at Forbes Field Yesterday, Even Slim Rice Was There.

Greater Connellsville sent a good delegation to Pittsburgh yesterday to join with the thirty odd thousand others who were there to help Barney Dryfuss dedicate his new ball park, Forbes Field. Although the crowd was immense it did not obscure or exclude the Connellsville people, who were much in evidence at every stage of the game. Indeed, Connellsville was entitled to great distinction, for our own "Slim" Rice was there as a rival to Captain Balm, the Green county giant, who had no more than an inch or two of height on "Slim."

Of course the Coker rooters cheered lustily through the red and yellow megaphones for the Pirates to win, but all in vain. The Cubs simply walked away with the contest. As a ball game the exhibition was only ordinary, but the crowds and the park made up for all of that.

Quite a number of fans remained over night and took in the scrap at Duquesne Garden. Jack Johnson, the colored pugilist, was the drawing card, but his bout with Tony Ross of New Castle was tame compared to the three rattling preliminaries which kept the crowd on edge every minute.

It was a great day for Pittsburgh and Greater Connellsville did her share helping Father Pitt blow himself.

SUIT TO CORRECT DEED.

Executive of Estate Says Too Much Land Was Given in Paper.

UNIONTOWN, July 1.—Miss Elizabeth Fuller, executrix of the estate of the late Dr. Smith Fuller of Uniontown has entered a suit in equity for the correction of a deed given David Friedberg for a certain parcel of land on Fayette street, Uniontown. The plaintiff says too much land was included in the deed by mistake.

The lines were made from a survey of Friedberg's engineer, and it developed that too much property was conveyed.

Sues For Rent Money.

UNIONTOWN, July 1.—William Klenour of Franklin township wants $250 from Patrick and Michael Ridge State road contractors, for the rent of a barn and some stones furnished Frank E. Edwards, a sub-contractor. Klenour says the Ridge's stood good for the bill but he hasn't seen any money yet.

Jailed By Mother.

UNIONTOWN, July 1.—Della May Shorley has been sent to jail from Bulskin township by Squire Burkett on complaint of her mother, Mrs. Emma Clark. Mrs. Clark says Della has manifested an ungovernable disposition. Incorrigibility is the charge.

This is "Clean Up" Day.

This is "clean up" day and the suggestion for making the town look brighter for the Fourth brought good results.

In Social Circles.

Final Club Meeting.

Elaborate and unique appointments marked a delightful meeting of the Entre Nous Club at which Mrs. A. A. Straub was hostess yesterday afternoon at her home at the Smith House. The meeting marked the closing of the current season and was one of the prettiest and most enjoyable ones of the year. Excellent taste was shown in the handsome decorations the parlors and library being transformed into a veritable bower of beauty for the occasion. Appointments significant of Independence Day were very cleverly carried out, a color scheme of red, white and blue predominated in the decorations and refreshments. Flags and cut flowers were lavishly used. Artistic drapings of flags adorned the mantels and doorways while smaller flags in abundance were used on the walls, curtains and chandeliers. Suspended from the chandeliers were large balls entwined with asparagus. Vases of carnations, red geraniums, and daisies were on the mantels while jardiniere of poppies and daisies were artistically placed in the various rooms. Bright tokens were in evidence. Instead of the conventional taily cards small silk flags and are crackers tied with red, white and blue ribbon were used. There were four prizes awarded at the close of the games. The first prize, a very handsome hand-made cushion, was won by Mrs. J. D. Madigan. Mrs. John Duggan and Mrs. F. B. Donnelly tied for the second prize, a hand-painted plate. On the cut Mrs. Duggan won. A cut glass comfort, the guests prize was won by Mrs. M. B. Shupe. A very dainty plaque was won by Mrs. J. L. Evans for having the largest number of grand daisies. At 2 o'clock coffee was laid aside to partake of a well arranged luncheon. The ice cream was served in baskets in which were placed small flags. The fans were cracklers of a medium size filled with salted peanuts and tied with red, white and blue ribbon. Mrs. Straub proved herself to be a very charming hostess. The out of town guests present were Mrs. Margaret Kennedy and Mrs. C. L. Straub of Pittsburgh, house guests of yesterday. Mrs. S. A. Amund of Uniontown, and Miss Rowe of Cumberland, the house guest of Mrs. C. A. Brill.

Reception for Babies. Forty babies accompanied by their mothers and friends were present at a delightfully appointed reception given yesterday afternoon in the First Presbyterian Church for the Cradle Roll Department of the Sunday School. The hours were from 2 until 4 o'clock. The church was prettily decorated for the occasion in roses, daisies, nasturtiums, and ferns. Mrs. L. V. Nott was chairman of the reception committee, and to her is due much credit for the success of the reception. Various children's games were inaugurated in until about 4:30 o'clock when the babies were taken into the church chapel where a dainty luncheon was served from several small tables prettily decorated with cut flowers. Clothe pins dolls were given each baby as favors.

Recital at Evening. A very delightful event of last evening was a recital given by the pupils of Miss Bertha Mary Todd of Scotland, assisted by Simon Miller, as tenor. Tyrona hall at Evening, where the recital was held, was well filled with music lovers from Scotland and vicinity. The program was a very fine one and was rendered in an excellent manner.

Those present from Connellsville were Miss Margaret Brennan, Miss Mary McHugh, Richard Ryan, Miss Vera Ryan, Miss Mary Higgins, Mrs. C. W. Patterson, Mrs. R. A. Rust, Miss A. C. Lyon, F. B. Thatcher, James Shay, Rosalind McPartland, Miss Rose McArdle of Connellsville participated in the program.

Marriage of Miss Helen Hopwood, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. David J. Hopwood of Grant street, Uniontown and John Finley Jr. of Latrobe was solemnized yesterday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock, at the home of the bride, Dr. A. N. Buchanan, pastor of the First Presbyterian Church of Uniontown officiating. The bride has taught in the Westmoreland county schools for several years and is widely and favorably known in Uniontown. The bridegroom is superintendent of a coke plant near Latrobe. Mr. and Mrs. Irwin will reside at Latrobe.

Annual outing of the First Baptist Sunday school is being held today at Shady Grove park. The school is accompanied with picnicers including members and friends of the Sunday school left here at 8:30 o'clock. All kinds of amusements have been arranged for the day.

Three Couple Will Wed. J. J. Winkler of Connellsville and Miss Margaret McCallister of Pittsburgh, William Lee and Anna Shupe of Uniontown, Lucy B. Sprinkel of Scotland, and Frank L. Bentley of Donora, were granted marriage licenses in Pittsburgh yesterday.

Miss Zella Lynn of Greensburg and Miss Morris of Connellsville, an employee of the Westmoreland Grocery Company were married in Cumberland Wednesday. Mr. and Mrs. Morris will reside on Fayette street, Connellsville.

Beautifully Appointed Luncheon. Mrs. O. J. H. Hartshorn and Mrs. Edward Brindle of New Castle, shared honors at a beautifully appointed luncheon at which Mrs. John Barge was hostess yesterday afternoon at her home on South Pittsburgh street.

Missionary Society Will Meet. The Women's Foreign Missionary Society of the Trinity Reformed Church will meet this evening at the home of Miss Florence Ankeny on Race street. All members are invited to attend.

Picnic at Breakneck. Miss Hazel Lee Sullivan gave a picnic yesterday afternoon at Breakneck in honor of Misses Ellenore and Dorothy Hambley of Pittsburgh the guests of Miss Margaret Herpich.

A F. J. Society Will Meet. The A. F. J. Society of the Methodist Episcopal Sunday school will be held this evening at the home of Miss Anna Horner on West Apple street. A large attendance is expected.

Invitations Out for Dance. Invitations were issued this afternoon by the El-Town Outing Club for a private dance to be held Friday evening July 14 at Shady Grove park.

LOCAL ITEMS; PERSONAL MENTION.

Miss Margaret Artzman, a nurse in the Mercy Hospital, Pittsburgh, returned to Pittsburgh last evening after spending her vacation with her parents Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Artzman of South Connellsville. Miss Nellie McConney of Greensburg is the guest of Miss Maryton Bendlar of North Pittsburgh street. Mrs. C. L. Straub and Mrs. Margaret Kennedy of Pittsburgh are the house guests of Mrs. A. A. Straub. Miss Isola Lundenberger, Miss Laura O'Connor and Miss Audibin Haws are home from the California State Normal for their summer vacation.

DIED.

Eva Johnson, little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. N. B. Johnson died yesterday at the family residence, the old Wilson homestead near Wheeler, Dunbar township, aged one year, 10 months and 19 days. Funeral from the Johnson residence Friday afternoon at 3 o'clock. Interment in Mill Grove cemetery.

AN EXCEPTIONAL OFFERING IN Men's Summer Suits at $15.00

This month marks the close of the most successful Spring season in the history of this store. In accordance with our established policy we begin at this season of the year to reduce prices on the balance of our Spring and Summer Suits.

We place on sale

Friday and Saturday

of this week the entire remainder of our Spring and Summer Suits for Men and Young Men in fancy worsteds, chevots, in the popular patterns and fabrics in the newest styles that sold for $16.50, $18.00, $20.00, $22.50, $25.00 and $28.00, regardless of former price at $15.00

These Suits are our best—the newest we have. All fashionably cut and excellently tailored from choice fabrics.

We consider it good business to close out each season's stock before the next stock arrives and we make a sacrifice to do it.

TAKE ADVANTAGE OF OUR GREAT BEFORE THE FOURTH BARGAINS IN HIGH CLASS SUMMER SUITS.

An Important Announcement About the Tailoring Department.

At the beginning of this season we inaugurated a new departure in our Merchant Tailoring Department.

We came to the conclusion that we could serve our men and our customers' interests better by employing a cutter to devote his entire time to this department.

Our cutter has made good.

We have turned out a higher class of work and have more highly pleased patrons to our credit in this department than ever before.

We want to keep things moving. We have gotten together an excellent force of skilled tailors and we want to keep them employed during the summer months. In order to do this we have made

SUBSTANTIAL REDUCTIONS

IN THE PRICES OF MADE-TO-ORDER SUITS.

All of the remainder of our Spring and Summer Suitings are offered at a reduction of 20 to 25 per cent.

This means a clear saving to you of quite a sum of money on a suit you have made to order during this sale. Many of these suits are suitable for all the year round wear. They will all receive the same care as suits of style, fit and high class tailoring that have characterized all of our suits this summer.

Do a little figuring—take out your pencil and see what you can save by buying now, and then come here expecting to save it. You will not be disappointed.

Hart Schaffner & Marx clothes are all wool, and all wool is the only real, full value in clothes. We have some clothes that are not all wool, we'll tell you so if you select any of them. We don't advise you to buy cotton mixed goods, they're mostly disappointing, and that's bad for us as well as you. We have them here to sell to men who are not yet wise enough to insist on all wool.

We'll try to persuade you to buy Hart Schaffner & Marx all wool clothes, they'll cost more because they're worth more. Suits $18 to $25.

THURSDAY EVENING, JULY 1, 1909.

THE JUSTICE OF THE PEACE; HIS RIGHTS AND DUTIES.

Justice Bowman of Brownsville retains his office only because the Superior Court has declared that the law under which he was ousted is unconstitutional. This law provides that if the justice fails to act for six months continuously his office may be declared vacant. The court says a justice is a member of the judiciary and may not be dismissed from office save by the Governor, and by him only for misbehavior in office; because this is set down in the Constitution, and cannot be altered by mere legislative enactment.

Both the lawmakers and the legal profession should keep the Constitution ever before them in making and interpreting the laws. They would thereby be saved much trouble and humiliation, and the stream of justice would flow pure and untroubled.

The decision suggests two things, namely:

1. That a justice may be removed for misbehavior in office. We have some justices whose conduct, official and otherwise, has been distinct "misbehavior," in office and out of it. Such justices had better henceforth walk upright and dignified. More stumbles may mean a fatal fall.

2. The justice's court is a court of record; its records are consequently public, not private records, and as public records, they are open to the inspection of the citizen, even though he be a reporter, at all reasonable hours.

The opinion of the Superior Court is illuminating and it is to be hoped that its light will shine clearly and understandingly upon all the courts of record of Fayette county.

HUMANITY DEMANDS SUNDAY ICE DELIVERIES.

We read in the Uniontown Herald that, "To avoid the rush and jam of the crowds next Monday, Uniontown ice companies have been granted the privilege of delivering ice Sunday afternoon."

It is not stated whether this "privilege" has been granted by the borough authorities or by the Sunday Observance Association, but it is certain that during excessively hot weather common humanity, the humanity which Christ preached, demands that the ice manufacturers and dealers deliver ice Sunday mornings as well as on other mornings.

During the hot months ice is just as essential as milk to the lives of the little ones, and the same necessity for Sunday delivery exists in the one case as in the other, for without the ice the milk will not keep.

This matter has already appealed to one of the ice companies of Connelville, which delivered ice last Sunday morning to its customers and all others desiring it. It should appeal to ice dealers everywhere.

It is a public service which is demanded by the highest considerations of humanity.

CRUEL AND UNUSUAL MATRIMONIAL PUNISHMENTS.

The young couple who were compelled to get married clandestinely a couple of days before the date publicly set for the ceremony were unfortunately in having some misguided friends whose peculiar sense of humor was evidently feared to be more highly developed than their innate or cultivated courtesy.

Without meaning to be personally offensive in this particular case, which is but a sample of many others which have preceded it in different walks of life, we feel constrained to say that the common custom of making horse play of the marriage ceremony should have decent and reasonable limits.

The average couple who contemplate matrimony should be willing to submit to a reasonable amount of good-natured chaffing, but their friends should be friendly enough not to inflict cruel and unusual situations upon them.

BASEBALL AND RELIGION.

Uniontown's Church Baseball League has again been disrupted by a violent quarrel, and riotous proceedings on the grounds and on the way thereto.

We are more than ever convinced that baseball and religion will not amalgamate, and that athletic Christianity had better confine itself to some other sports that do not offer so many inducements for hot dispute. The religious sects have had too many bitter quarrels over their doctrines without engaging in controversial foreign thereto. If the members will play baseball, they had better play the game as winners, and not as saints.

Baseball is not for the just and generous, the gentle and forgiving, the meek and the lowly, it's for the furious fans, the roaring rosters, the mad mobs vociferously demanding the blood of the umpire.

LABOR STRIKES A SIGN OF THE TIMES.

The labor strikes which have characterized the resumption of business are annoying and distracting to properity, but they are a sure evidence of the coming.

When the mines and mills and factories are shut down and labor is idle there is no room for strikes. When half of the people are hunting work and do not know where the next meal is coming from there is no disposition to quibble over the rate of wages, the hours of work, or any other conditions of service. It is only when conditions are reversed that labor begins to be more critical of the terms of its employment.

These differences, however, soon adjust themselves satisfactorily, because it is to the interests of the contending parties that they should be settled, and to their interests is often added the interest of the public.

FAYETTE COUNTY'S BLOODHOUND DETECTIVES.

The efficiency of the detective force of Fayette county is to be strengthened by the purchase of a pair of bloodhounds.

The bloodhound has no vote, no pull, no political influence, he cannot watch at the polls or disseminate information, or even drive a voter's hurry up wagon.

But his scent defies all the efforts of skillful villany to divert, he is not susceptible to external influences, his efficiency is only exceeded by his honesty.

Without meaning to reflect in any manner upon any other members of the county detective bureau, we may say that the bloodhounds will no doubt prove valuable additions to the criminal capturing combination.

The authorship of the famous Cleveland letter printed just before the last campaign, in which Bryan and Bryanism were criticized, has been judicially established. It was not a real forgery after all. Cleveland didn't write it. He merely edited it, and by that act he made it his own. It was not his own hand or not it does not require an expert to form the conclusion that it represented very accurately Cleveland's views on the subjects treated. The only doubt was whether he would have desired to give expression thereto.

President Taft is sending a very verbal message to Congress via the Yale line.

Death has claimed another leader of the State Senate in the person of John W. Crawford of Allegheny county. He was one of the oldest members of that body in point of continuous service, and one of the ablest. He had a genial personality which made him many fast friends. His old associates will miss him in the next gathering of the State lawmakers.

The mining experts are at Punxsutawney this week weatherwise and otherwise.

The insurgents of the United States Senate are unreservedly for the income tax, and will not be swayed with the sop of a Corporation tax no matter how sweet it is made. The insurgents are consistent concerning the income tax. If they are not so concerning other tariff schedules.

The Uniontown Herald says the Connelville newspaper are "laying down" on our Independence day celebration. This statement is not only untruthful, but it is also ungrateful, as it does from a newspaper which has persistently and peacefully "knocked" the Connelville celebration.

Connelville and Scottdale each contribute a promising coming officer to Uncle Sam's navy.

Free Delivery should reach all sections of the West Side and every other side of Connelville. If it does not it must be because the streets not having the advantages of free delivery have not complied with the regulations of the Postoffice Department respecting sidewalks, numbered houses and placards at street corners. It is the duty of the Town Council to see that all deficiencies of this kind are supplied as soon as possible.

Connelville sent a goodly company to the Forbes Field muster.

The cause of baldness has been the subject of much scientific inquiry, but the fact that man is bald above the line of the hair rim and rarely any further would argue that baldness comes from wearing hats. Hair is Nature's covering for man and when he undertakes to improve on it the foolish old dame withdraws its favor.

Westmoreland county has broken up a robbing gang of light-fingered variety, without the aid of bloodhounds.

The municipal flower show will be ready just in time for the glorious Fifth.

Our news dispatches assert that the impending tin plate mill strike will affect the union mills and among these it mentions the Humbert mill at Connelville. Inasmuch as the Humbert mill had been idle for some years, and still remains so, it is not likely that it will be "affected" seriously enough to be noticed.

There is no excuse for the complaint that mine inspectors reports are not uniform. It's up to the Chief Inspector to see that they are uniform.

The Lake Erie railroad is said to have ambitions to penetrate the West Virginia coal fields. It sought to cross the Monongahela river and get into the Greene county game. It would also do better for itself if it edged a little closer to the center of Greater Connelville.

But for the Corporation Income Tax of doubtful legality and undoubted inequity the tariff bill would be practically complete for conference. President Taft is assuming a large measure of responsibility for delaying the Prosperity Wagon, but he probably thinks with many others that the wagon is now well on its way and isn't going to stop for any tariff legislation.

The Western Pennsylvania press is urging the wisdom and propriety of spending the summer at home, or near at home. Why not? Our mountains afford air as cool and invigorating as that of most other summer resorts, not to mention the matter of convenience.

If the Fifth is going to be so fatal as is predicted, it is time to think of abolishing some features of the day.

NEW NECKWEAR.

On Friday and Saturday of this week will have the largest showing of 25 and 50 cent neckwear this store ever had to show. A greater variety of styles and more kinds than ever before. A part of this showing will consist of samples and will be marked at just about half of the real worth.

CHILDREN'S DRESSES AT HALF PRICE.

Children's White Dresses, sizes 1 to 6 years. These were shown in the window and on the tables and are slightly soiled and for that reason you can buy them at exactly one half the original price.

NEW SHIRT WAISTS.

Showing this week several new styles in waists at $2.50, $3.50, $5.00 and $6.00. New patterns in the lace and embroidery with which they are trimmed and we call special attention to the fit of these waists. You'll find them better in every way than the ordinary waists at these prices.

A NEW PARASOL FOR THE FOURTH.

You'll want one and we think we have the kind you want at pretty near the price you want to pay. Pretty colors and pretty styles and every one new this season. No hold overs from last year. Prices start at $1.00 and from that on up to $5 and $6.

WOMEN'S HOSE AT 50c, OR 3 PAIRS FOR $1.00.

Here's a make and quality of hose that this store has carried in stock for over 30 many years. Summer weight gauze hose with double sole and double heels. As good as most 50c stockings you've shown. Only black and that means absolutely fast black.

NEMO CORSETS.

Comfort and correct style for stout women. Nemo corsets wear longer than any other corsets because the triple strip reinforcement prevents bones and steels from cutting through the material. No 312 for stout women of medium height and 314 for short waisted stout women. Both styles $3.00 each.

COLORED LINENS AT 50c THE YARD.

About 10 different shades in the best quality linen we ever had to sell at 50c the yard. Heavier and better linen and a smoother finish full 36 inches wide. Plain white linen. Oyster finish a new milting linen 45 inches wide and 75c the yard is another extra value in linen to show you this week.

BUNTING FOR THE FOURTH.

Greater Connelville asks you to decorate this Fourth. Hang out bunting and flags wherever you can. Plenty of red white and blue bunting here now at 5c the yard. Won't cost you much to do your share towards helping Connelville to celebrate.

SCOTSDALE TOWN COUNCIL MEETS.

At a Special Session They Ordered All Employees Paid.

HAVE MONEY FOR CELEBRATION

Miss Bertha Mary Todd Holds Well Attended Recital—Two Cases of Appendicitis From Here Operated
On Unique Festival Planned.

SCOTSDALE, July 1.—The Town Council held a special meeting last night, and ordered the regular salaries paid for the month and the laborers paid up, so that all borough employees will have money for the big celebration that Scottdale will have next Monday. Among other things done was ordering some changes of grades, to extend a sewer up Walnut street for the accommodation of the new High School building to secure estimates on the cost of curbing down the steep grade of Chestnut street up to the school building, a declivity that has long been a menace to the school attendance and the people living in this section, and the ordering of the return of the flash lights bought recently for the police and that don't seem to work properly.

Tax Collector B. B. McMillen turned over $24,012.40 of taxes collected this year. Burgess R. F. Ellis gave in $75 for fines and licenses for June and Westminster W. E. Henry $10 for fees. E. M. S. Pyle paid his street paving assessment of $253.22 for Spring street. The members present were President W. H. Sleight, W. H. Brown, J. F. Berry, H. G. Martz, William Butler, J. W. Fitzsimmons and M. L. Haenen.

Miss Todd's Recital.
There was a large attendance at the recital given by pupils of Miss Bertha Mary Todd, assisted by Elmon Miller, the local tenor, at Tyrone Hall, last evening. The recital lasted until 10 o'clock and was followed by dancing until 12. Among those who appeared on the program were Arna Bailey, Gladys Trimble, Pauline Miller, Ruth Munaw, Verna, Eiche, Theresa Brennan, Josephine Rush, Charlotte Kelly, Marion Baumbrick, Anna Shearer, Helen Boworth, Mary Byrne, Alice Keller, Gertha Nichols, Lillian Kennedy, Lillian Carter, Merwyn Nichols, Rose McArdle and Helewa McKee.

Two Appendicitis Cases.
There were two cases of appendicitis from Scottdale that were operated on at the St. Pleasant hospital last evening. The persons who underwent the operations were Mrs. Cunningham and James Connare, a 16-year-old boy. Drs. W. H. Fetter, L. T. Gilbert and James P. Strickler performed the operations.

Feast of Lanterns Friday.
Unique posters in colors announce the coming feast of lanterns to be held on the Methodist Episcopal Church lawn on Friday evening, by the Standard Bearers, a missionary society. Many clever features have been arranged for the evening, among them an ice race, a buttermilk spring and a Chinese laundry. The posters are drawn in Japanese style and for a while had some of the people who saw them guessing, and a report was affixed that a Chinese laundry was to open in a room now occupied by a store up town. A feature of the entertainment is that the lawn is to be lighted up with over a hundred paper lanterns, which will create an odd effect.

The Peterson Outing.
A large number of people left town on the 9 o'clock car yesterday morning for Oxford Park, where Peterson's Business College held their annual outing. President P. O. Peterson was incapacitated from baseball or other heavy sport today on account of his right hand being greatly swollen from a blow received when the lever of his automobile flew back and struck him.

Many Went to Pittsburgh.
Many citizens boarded the Uniontown Express yesterday carrying tickets to Pittsburgh, where they spent the day and took in the opening of Forbes Field. At the forenoon train there was another exodus of fans, and the street cars to Greensburg carried a few who went in later.

McFeters Has High Mark.
Charles P. McFeters, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harry M. McFeters, formerly of here and now of Greensburg, passed both his mental and physical examinations for admittance to Annapolis. He shows particularly in mathematics and as the examinations are extremely difficult 80 is a passing mark. McFeters went through with a mark of 80.2 which is high.

Now Special Examiner.
A. P. Smith, formerly of Waynesburg, who was made an Assistant Bank Examiner after the closing of the Farmers & Drivers Bank, has been appointed Special Bank Examiner under the Department of Justice of the United States, by Attorney General Wickersham.

Hermine Has Bad Fire.
A bad fire broke out Wednesday evening in the big storage warehouse of the Keystone Coal Company at Hermine. The big building was almost totally destroyed, causing a great loss to the company.

PRESIDENT TAFT WARNS CONGRESS.

Says Promises to the People Must Be Fulfilled.

HE ADDRESSES YALE ALUMNI

Passes From Jocular Mood To One More Serious and Asserts That the Party Which Fails to Obey Commands of People Will Fall.

New Haven, Conn., July 1.—President Taft paused in the course of an after-dinner speech to 1,800 graduates of Yale, gathered at the annual alumni banquet, to issue a serious note of warning to congress and to the leaders of the Republican party. The president declared that if the party which placed him in power and so long had controlled the government failed to live up to its promises and the expectations of the people, it would be relegated to the position of a minority opposition.

Mr. Taft had been speaking humorously of recollections of his own college days, which made his sudden change to a serious tone of the important utterances upon national affairs all the more impressive. The president spoke extemporaneously and his utterances as to the duty of the party of which he is nominally the head seemed the result of a sudden impulse rather than of studied intent.

Mr. Taft made no effort to explain his warnings. The Yale men caught his meaning and the significance of the remarks, coming at this time of the tariff debate, however, and they stood and cheered for several minutes. He had been speaking of Secretary of State Dickinson, a Democrat, upon whom Yale had conferred an honorary degree. He taunted the Democracy with the best of good humor as to its present day condition and this led him into the declaration as to his own party.

"Just to show," the president concluded amid laughter, "that we have troubles of our own."

After paying tribute to others upon whom the university conferred degrees, the president came down to Secretary Dickinson and said: "Well, when you come to discuss what is a Democrat these days you are presented with very much the same difficulty that I have before me now in giving certain rules for the construction of the pure food law as to what whisky is. They say there is 'straight' whisky and then there is 'rectified' whisky and then there is 'imitation' whisky. Now I speak with a good deal of hesitation in saying whether my friend Dickinson is a 'straight' Democrat or a 'rectified' Democrat. I would not dare to say in his presence that he was an 'imitation' Democrat."

"Now, my dear friends, in suggesting differences among Democrats I am far from ignoring some difficulties that there are on our side. I remember in 1904 that Mr. Charles Francis Adams gave what I may call a perfectly good Adams reason for the election of the Democratic candidate over the Republican candidate. He said that one of the essentials of a successful free government was an able, patriotic and efficient opposition and that as the Democratic party had utterly failed in reaching that ideal he was in favor of putting the Republican party in that place. Now, I venture to say that while that may not be the reason which shall move the American people, it is true that if the Republican party does not live up to its promises and what the people expect of it, it will be relegated to a position like that of his majesty's opposition. And therefore I may say by way of caveat that we have troubles of our own."

URGE INCOME TAX.

Borah of Idaho and Cummins of Iowa Speak On It.

Washington, July 1.—Income tax was practically the only subject and Senator Cummins of Iowa and Borah of Idaho the only speakers before the senate.

Mr. Borah took for his text the declaration made by Senator Aldrich to the effect that he would vote for the corporation tax amendment only as a means of defeating the income tax and criticized the position of the chairman of the finance committee.

Considerable attention was also given to the general merits of a tax on incomes, which Mr. Cummins defended as the most rational, because the most just, of all taxes. Estimating the total revenues under the Aldrich-Payne bill at $380,000,000 and those to be derived from the internal revenue at $240,000,000, he predicted that at the end of the fiscal year, 1911, there would be a deficit of not less than $175,000,000.

THE BOSWELL MINERS ARE OUT ON STRIKE

There Are 1,000 Men There and Weighing of Coal is the Dispute That Caused The Trouble.

SOMERSET, Pa., July 1.—The United Coal Company's miners at Boswell are all out on a strike and the company has threatened to close their mines indefinitely unless the men return to their work at once.

The strike originated over the weight of coal with which the men were credited. The miners claim that they mined a great deal more coal than they received payment for, while the company contends that they received payment for the exact weight of coal mined.

On Tuesday it was announced that if the men did not return to work by Thursday morning the mines will be closed. A mass meeting was held by the miners in the woods near Boswell on Tuesday evening, but of course outsiders were not permitted to be present at this meeting.

There are about a thousand men employed about the Boswell mines. It is stated that labor organizers have been seen about Boswell and that the present trouble is largely due to them. Today it will be known definitely whether the miners will return to work or whether the mines will be closed.

There is a well founded rumor afloat in Somerset that the United Coal Company is preparing to abandon their mines at Boswell and that they will tap the same vein of coal on which they are now working about three miles northwest of the present mine. This new mine will be somewhere in the neighborhood of Glenner postoffice. If this is done a new coal town will spring up and Boswell will likely cease to exist. Boswell owes everything, even its name, to the Merchants' Coal Company, by whom it was established 10 years ago when they commenced mining operations there.

One fact which seems to confirm this rumor is that the Merchants' Coal Company recently mortgaged all their holdings, about 25,000 acres together with machinery and so forth to the Farmers' Loan & Trust Company of New York for $7,500,000. The purpose of the mortgage was to secure a bond issue the proceeds of which will be used in extensively increasing the company's mining operations. Many people think that the first move will be the establishment of the new mine at Glenner.

DUNBAR OUTCLASSES THE MORGAN CLUB

Pitchers Dish Up Some Excellent Twirling—Circus Catch of a Texas League.

DUNBAR, July 1.—Dunbar outclassed Morgan A. C. in an interesting game here Monday. Both King and Mullin pitched "swell" ball, while Haberer was touched up when hits meant runs. Young's fielding at third; a circus catch of a Texas leaguer by McGovern and King's catch of a long fly in deep left were the features. Dunbar would like to hear from all first class teams in the county for dates through July and August. Write J. W. Greaves, Jr., Secretary, or call 33 ring 3.

SENATOR CRAWFORD DEAD

Leading Allegheny County Politician Succumbs After Long Illness.

Pittsburg, July 1.—State Senator John W. Crawford died at the McKeesport hospital last evening. He had been a patient there for eight weeks.

When taken to the hospital Mr. Crawford was suffering from appendicitis. An operation was performed and for several days life hung on a thread. Then Mr. Crawford rallied, but he has been ill ever since. A rupture of the bowels occurred. A second operation was performed, but he sank rapidly.

AT WORK OR PLAY

A good player is a good worker.

The man who works hard plays hard.

The man with an active, sound body, a keen, quick eye and a commanding personality is just as keen and select in his beverage.

Good Beer is a generator of vim and vigor.

It keeps the system clean, active and nourished.

It makes muscles and brawn and physically fits one to do things.

But the beer must be good—it will be good if it bears the P. B. Co. trade mark.

This company makes many good beers suitable to a variety of tastes, but each and every one is the acme of purity, strength and richness—the highest class beverage possible to produce.

When you order from a dealer—phone or postal—don't fail to specify a Pittsburgh Brewing Company beer. It will make you absolutely sure of the result and will save any possible dissatisfaction.

A Great Sensation At Ft. Wayne, Ind.

WONDERFUL DISCOVERY HAS BECOME TALK OF THE WHOLE COUNTRY.

This copy from the Fort Wayne Journal-Gazette shows what Root Juice is doing in the city in which it is made: "Sensation upon sensation follows in rapid succession in Fort Wayne these days. This is the home of Root Juice and it has done so many wonderful things here that it has become the talk of the whole country. The reporter in one evening counted fifty-six people who said they were cured of some chronic ailment by the use of the discovery, and many of them were people whose word could not be doubted. Some of the cures seemed like a miracle. Mrs. E. G. Moore of 612 Webster street has suffered for several years with intense stomach and kidney troubles. During her illness she was treated by a number of doctors and used many kinds of medicine, but it all failed to give more than momentary relief. Although Mrs. Moore had almost given up hope she was persuaded by her friends to try the Root Juice treatment. After using three bottles of the juice she gained sixteen pounds and is able to do her housework and care for her children. The lady is well liked in her neighborhood and the wonderful cure has caused a great deal of talk. Mr. H. R. Beck, of 447 Superior street, told the reporter that he would not take a thousand dollars for what Root Juice did for him, as it had completely cured him of a kidney and rheumatic trouble of long standing. Mr. A. R. Meyers of 502 LaSalle street (an old and highly respected citizen) said: 'I was completely cured of a chronic trouble of the stomach and kidneys with four bottles of Root Juice and two bottles of the liniment that is used with it. I took the juice three times a day and rubbed my back and swollen limbs every night and morning with the liniment. Mr. Chris Hostman, of 1314 West Jefferson street, after using the remarkable remedy a short while was cured of a bad case of indigestion and rheumatism. It would take a whole newspaper to tell of the many cures the wonderful medicine has made in Fort Wayne.' The people of Connellsville will soon have a chance to see for themselves, as the demonstrations will be conducted in Graham & Company's drug store next Saturday.

The Man From Brodney's

By GEORGE BARR
M'UTCHEON

Copyright, 1908, by Dodd, Mead & Co.

The market place was a large open tract in the extreme west end of the town, some distance removed from the business street and the pier. Through a break in the foothills the chateau was plainly discernible, the sea being obscured from view by the dense forest that crowned the cliffs.

Chase made his way boldly to the nearest platform, exchanging bows with the surprised Von Blitz and the sturdiest Rinsula, who stood quite near. The men of Japan slowly drew close in as he mounted the platform. From where he stood looking out over those bronze faces he could pick out the scowling husbands who hated him because their wives hated them. After off stood the group of women who had inspired this hatred and distrust. He heard them, despised and unconcerned by the oriental elect, were crowded the native women, who down in their hearts loathed the usurpers. It was Chase's hope that the husbands of these simple women would ultimately stand at his side in the fight for supremacy, and they were vastly in the majority. If he could convince these men that his dealings with them were honest, Von Blitz could go home. He faced the crowd, knowing that all there were against him. "Von Blitz!" he called suddenly. The German started and stepped back involuntarily, as if he had been reprimanded.

"I've called this meeting in order to give you a chance to say to my face some of the things you are saying behind my back. Thank God, all of you men understand English. I want you to hear what Von Blitz has to say in public, and then I want you to hear what I say to him. Von Blitz and Rinsula and others, I hear, have undertaken to discredit my motives as the agent of your London advisers. Let me say right here that the man who says that I have played you false in the slightest degree is a liar—a liar, if you prefer it that way. You have been told that I am selling you out to the lawyers for the opposition. That is lie No. 1. You have been told to believe that I make false reports to your London solicitors. Lie No. 2. You have been poisoned with the story that I cover certain women in this town, for numbers of mention. I believe. That is lie No. 3. They are all beautiful, my friends, but I wouldn't have one of 'em as a gift.

"For the past few nights my home has been watched. I want to announce to you that if I see anybody hanging around the bungalow after to-day I'm going to put a bullet through him, just as I would through a dog. Now, to come down to Von Blitz. You can't drive me out of this island, old man. You have lied about me ever since I beat you up that night. You are sacrificing the best interests of these people in order to gratify a personal spite, in order to wreak a personal vengeance. You!"

Von Blitz, coming with rage, broke in: "I suppose you will call out der warship! We are not fools! You can fool some of 'em."

"Now, see here, Von Blitz, I'll show whether I can call out a warship whenever I need one. I have never intended to ask naval help except in case of an attack by our enemies up at the chateau. You can't believe that I seek to turn those big guns against my own clients—the clients I came out here to serve with my life's blood if necessary. But, hear me, you Dutch lobster, I can have a British man-of-war here in ten hours to take you off this island and hang you from a gallows on the charge of conspiracy against the crown."

Von Blitz and Rinsula laughed scornfully and turned to the crowd. "The latter began to harangue his fellows."

"This man is a—!" he began.

"A bluff!" prompted Von Blitz, glaring at his tall accuser.

"A bluff," went on Rinsula. "He can do none of these things. Nor can the Americans at the chateau. I know that they are liars. They!"

"I'll make you pay for that, Rinsula. Your time is short. Men of Japan, I don't want to serve you unless you trust me!"

A dozen voices cried: "We don't trust you, dog of a Christian, son of a snake!" Von Blitz glowed with satisfaction.

"One moment, please. Rinsula knows that I came out here to represent Sir John Brodney. He knows how I am regarded in London. He is jealous because I have not listened to his chatter. I am not responsible for the probable delay in settling the estate. If you are not very careful you will ruin every hope for success that you may have had in the beginning. The crown will take it out of your hands. You've got to show yourselves worthy of handling the affairs of this company. You can't do it if you listen to such carillon as Von Blitz and Rinsula. Oh, I'm not afraid of you! I know that you have written to Sir John, Rinsula, asking that I be recalled. He won't recall me, rest assured, unless he throws up the core. I have his own letters to prove that he is satisfied with my work out here. I am satisfied that there are enough fair minded men in this crowd to protect me. They will stand by me in the end. I call upon!"

But a howl of dissent from the throng brought him up sharply. His face went white, and for a moment he feared the malevolence that stared at him from all sides. He looked frequently in the direction of the distant chateau. Von Blitz was screaming with insane laughter, pointing his finger at the discredited American. While they shouted and cursed, his gaze never left the cleft in the hills. He did not attempt to cry them down. The effort would have been in vain. Suddenly a wild, happy light came into his anxious, searching eyes. He gave a mighty shout and raised his hands, commanding silence.

Settin, clinging to his side, also had seen the skyrocket which arose from the chateau and dropped almost instantly into the wall of trees.

There was something in the face and voice of the American that quelled the riotous disorder.

"You fools!" he shouted. "Take warning! I have told you that I would not turn the guns of England and America against you unless you turned against me. I am your friend, but by the great Mohammed you'll pay for my life with every one of your own if you resort to violence. Listen! Today I learned that my life was threatened. I sent a message in the air to the nearest battleship. There is not an hour in the day or night that I or the people in the chateau cannot call upon our governments for help. My call today has been answered, as I knew it would be. There is always a warship near at hand, my friends. It is for you to say whether a storm of shot and shell!"

The awestruck crowd parted to let Chase pass.

Von Blitz leaped upon a platform and shouted madly: "Fools! Don't believe him! He cannot bring der ships here! He lies, he lies! He!"

At that moment a shrill clamor of voices arose in the distance, the cries of women and children. Chase's heart gave a great bound of joy. He knew what it meant.

Chase pointed his finger at Von Blitz and shouted: "I can't, eh? There's a British warship standing off the harbor now, and her guns are trained!"

But he did not complete the astounding, stupefying sentence. The women were screaming: "The warship, the warship! Fly, fly!"

In a second the entire assemblage was racing furiously, doubtfully, yet fearfully, toward the pier. Von Blitz and Rinsula shouted in vain. They were left with Chase, who smiled triumphantly upon their ghastly faces. "Gentlemen, they are not deceived. There is a warship out there. You came near to showing your hand to-night. Now come along with me, and I'll show my hand to you. Rinsula, you'd better draw in your claws. You're entitled to some consideration. But Von Blitz! Jacob, you are standing on very thin ice. I can have you shot tomorrow morning."

Von Blitz spluttered and snarled. "It is all a lie! It is a trick!" He would have drawn his revolver had not Rinsula grasped his arm. The native lawyer dragged him off toward the pier, half doubting his own senses.

Just outside the harbor, plainly distinguishable in the moonlight, lay a great cruiser, her searchlights whipping the sky and sea with long white lashes.

The gaping, awestruck crowd in the street parted to let Chase pass through on his way to the bungalow. His manner was that of a medieval conqueror. He looked neither to right nor to left.

"It's more like a Christian Endeavor meeting than it was ten minutes ago," he was saying to himself, all the time wondering when some reckless unbeliever would hurt a knife at his back. He gravely winked his eye in the direction of the chateau. "Good old Brit!" he muttered in his exaltation.

Chicago Grain Market.
Chicago, July 1.—Wheat prices fluctuated nervously over a range of about 1 cent today and at the close showed little change from yesterday's final figures. Corn and oats closed firm and provisions about steady. July options closed: Wheat, 115½@116; corn, 71½; oats, 49½.

THIS HOT WAVE

Still continues, but it is nothing compared to the "hot" prices we are handing out. We want every family to avail themselves of our unparalleled low prices, a saving of 10 to 20 per cent. One year ago we commenced business here. The first month indicated a business of $8,000.00 to $9,000.00 a year. We are now doing about $45,000.00. Isn't that growing some? Low prices and square dealing done it. Why not deal with us where you get the best and treated right.

DANDERINE is to the hair what fresh showers of rain and sunshine are to vegetation. It goes right to the roots, invigorates and strengthens them. Its exhilarating, stimulating and life-producing properties cause the hair to grow abundantly long, strong and beautiful. It at once imparts a sparkling brilliancy and velvety softness to the hair, and a few weeks' use will cause new hair to sprout all over the scalp. Use it every day for a short time after which two or three times a week will be sufficient to complete whatever growth you desire.

A lady from St. Paul writes in substance:
"When I began using Danderine my hair would not come to my shoulders and now it is away below my hips."
Another from Newark, N. J.
"I have been using Danderine regularly. When I first started to use it I had very thin hair now I have the most beautiful hair and thick hair anyone would want to have."

NOW at all druggists in three sizes 25c, 50c and $1.00 per bottle

Danderine enjoys a greater sale than any other one preparation regardless of kind or brand, and it has a much greater sale than all of the other hair preparations in the world combined.

What would a team like this do to the other teams around this neck of the woods? Doesn't it look like a winner for fair? The sporting scribes of The Courier and The Herald got their heads together the other day and that is the outcome. It is notable for the fact that this is about the first thing these two sheets ever agreed on.

There is a strong team, one equally strong on offense or defensive play. It is composed of hard hitters, good baserunners, and steady fielders, and the team that got away with many games from it would have to go some. Barney Gilligan is picked to lead the batting list, cover second and captain the team. Gilligan is a good watter and wise to all the artifices of working the pitcher. He is also a good stickler, and runs bases intelligently. Once on, he could make the circuit without a whole lot of assistance. Gilligan is picked for his all round work, his knowledge of the game, which is surpassed by none, and his aggressive tactics.

There are second basemen in the league who will make fewer errors and perhaps field a shade better, but Barney is in the game all the time and knows the game like a book. Miller of Uniontown is an aggressive player, a good fielder, and fair stickler, but he is not superior to Gilligan in any department unless it is fielding. Rothmeyer of Grafton is another good man but is too old. The other second sackers are fair.

O'Malley is a good advance man and is picked second. He is also as good as any of the third sackers. Hagan of the Cokers is handicapped by an injured ankle. Were he in fit condition this season he would get the palm. Hilley of Uniontown is playing a consistent game, as is Warren of Grafton. O'Malley is a good fielder, can run in for bunts and cover plenty of ground. He is a fair stickler, too, and a good sacrifice hitter.

Because of his ability to poke out a single at the right time Joe Phillips is given third place. He is also a clubbed fielder and is given preference over McCloskey of Uniontown and McGinty of Clarkburg because of longer experience.

The "clean up" man is a hard selection out of this class array of sluggers, but Durham of Fairmont seems to have the edge. He is a terrific hitter and has no superior in the league as an outfielder. Bonc's "clean up" berth, and perhaps so. Phillips is a terrific slugger, but Durham seems to have a shade the better of him. Phillips, however, is placed next. In right field he has them all beaten. He is a fast man and a hard worker, being in the game every minute. His great weakness is letting grounders get away from him at times. His work in other ways, however, gives him the call. Calhoun of the Cokers is too light a stickler to the berth although he is wonderfully fast on the base and plays the game all the time.

Carlele of Uniontown comes next. He is a consistent hitter and a polished fielder. In center field he has no rival for supremacy. Hagan of Fairmont is a good man and so is Morgan of Charleston, but neither is as good as Carlele. Morgan is possibly a superior base runner. He is also a good stickler and fields well. Hagan is a good fielder and hits well, but lacks the head.

Carnes of Uniontown has it on the other first basemen. He is a fair hitter, and fast fielder. Gainer of Grafton is a youngster of much promise and a good stickler, but Carnes seems to be the best in the league.

The backstops this year are not showing great class. Ben Fratley of the Cokers is unquestionably the best in the league. He lacks experience. It is true, but he makes up for this by aggressive work. He is improving every day and would be a big help to this imaginary team with his bat. Gribben of Clarkburg is not showing the form he displayed last year but would be the second choice. Jackey and Daily of Fairmont lack the head, while Snodgrass of Uniontown does not measure up to the standard.

For the pitchers, Carlele of Fairmont is the man. He is showing grand form and probably has no superior this year. Willis of Fairmont is another good man, and would be included if more than one were carried. King of the same team is also displaying rare form. Wallace of Clarkburg seems to be the best southpaw working this season. For the utility role Myers of Connellsville is named. He hasn't sufficient experience to supplant the regular outfielders, but his hitting and general work entitles him to a place. He can play the infield or outfield equally well.

The above team looks good enough to make any of the O. & P. teams hunt the tall grass while the Tri-State and Central League aggregations would not find them easy pickings.
